This morning students travelled by bus to Bupa, Scalabrini and Pioneer Lodge nursing homes to entertain the residents by singing Christmas carols. The residents appeared to thoroughly enjoy our visits as did the students, especially when rewarded with ice blocks and soft drinks. Thank you students for your beautiful singing voices - a great effort!

Tomorrow, Tuesday 1st December, the combined churches will be delivering a Christmas concert to the students at 1:30pm for half an hour; we look forward to being entertained.

On Wednesday 2nd December, a company called “Keep Australia Beautiful” will be delivering age appropriate “EnvironMentor” workshops to the students. Students shall learn more about sustainability and positive environmental practises whilst participating in interactive and fun activities.

There will be changes for Tharbogang Public School in 2016. Kate Brace will not be returning as Principal, but shall remain in the Relieving Principal role at Yenda Public School. An “Expression of Interest” will be advertised this week for the Relieving Principal role at Tharbogang PS, with the position remaining from January 2016 until December 2016; applications close on Friday 11th December. There will be a teacher and a parent representatives present on the selection panel to give input regarding the choosing of the applicant.

Jessie Wythes shall also be moving on from Tharbogang Public School in 2016 to broaden her career elsewhere. An “Expression of Interest” has been advertised for the full time relieving classroom teacher position at Tharbogang PS, as Kerry Dal Nevo will not be returning on a full time basis; applications close on Monday 7th December. The selection panel will consist of Anita Moore, Kate Brace, Kerry Dal Nevo and a parent representative.

Have a great week!
